UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. ENRIQUE AYON, 2:16CR00237

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT
June 7, 2023

By way of case history, on March 10, 2017, Ayon was sentenced to 30 months custody followed by 3 years of supervised release and on May 13, 2019, Ayon began his first term of supervised release. On May 6, 2022, Ayon appeared before the Court for a revocation hearing. During that hearing, Ayon admitted to committing a new crime and was sentenced to 7 months custody followed by 29 months supervised release. On August 12, 2022, Ayon began his second term of supervised release.

As noted above, on December 5, 2022, the undersigned conducted a random home check on Ayon's residence and observed opened beer cans throughout the residence. Ayon was questioned and admitted drinking, though it was a violation of his release conditions. As Ayon stated his family drinks quite regularly, the undersigned instructed him to find a new residence as his current one is no longer appropriate if he is to be successful on supervision.

Additionally, on June 4, 2023, Ayon was arrested by LVMPD officers and charged with possession of a controlled substance (felony). Officers conducted a traffic stop on Ayon and a search of the vehicle revealed methamphetamine and a bulbous pipe. Ayon admitted to the officers that it was his methamphetamine and that he uses this drug sometimes.

The undersigned respectfully requests that a warrant be issued so that Ayon may appear before the Court to address these allegations.

Respectfully submitted,
